An Honorary Member of this Society

Who Entered Into Rest Fifth Month 29, 1919.

"As a cloud of the sunset slow melting in heaven,
As a star that is lost when the daylight is given,
As a glad dream of slumber which wakens in bliss,
She hath passed to the world of the holy from this".

Knowing her on earth our hearts were cheered and comforted, our minds stimulated and our souls stirred to their best endeavors, - yet

"So calm, so constant was her rectitude

That by her loss alone we know her worth."

Realizing this more and more our hearts reach out to her in the heavenly Home and we are filled with the desire to live close to the Master, as she did, that we may again know the joy of being with her.
